Regional Paramedical Services and DST Health Solutions Complete Business Process Outsourcing Agreement

Medical Transport Company Outsources Billing, Accounts Receivable Services

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., February 5, 2008—DST Health Solutions' Physician Practice Services unit has completed an agreement to provide business process outsourcing services for Regional Paramedical Services, one of the largest medical transport companies in Alabama. The outsourcing agreement includes technology and software for billing and accounts receivable management.

"As RPS has grown, our administrative needs have also increased," said Phillip Windham, vice president, RPS. "Our alliance with DST Health Solutions enables RPS to focus on providing quality medical transport services."

DST Health Solutions completes 35 million business transactions each year on behalf of its physician practice customers, including many large, emergency medicine groups. The RPS agreement marks the company's expansion into the related field of medical transport.

"Our work with Regional Paramedical Services builds on the knowledge that DST Health Solutions has developed over many years of serving emergency medical groups," said Steve Sabino, president, DST Health Solutions. "We look forward to improving administrative efficiency across the continuum of emergency medicine by working with both the physicians and transport specialists involved."
